NAVARATRI DRESS CODE

Navratri celebrates the nine forms of Goddess Durga, and each day is associated with a specific color. Often we follow a coordinated dress-code tradition for fun, unity, and celebration. During Navratri, RCPUC staffs along with principal Flt Lt Sunita Dixit joined the staff in the nine-color dress code tradition. The college encouraged the staffs to celebrate each day with its designated color. This created a festive environment across the campus. The colorful attire added to the festive atmosphere. The campus became lively with vibrant colors throughout the nine days. The unity in dress code strengthened the sense of community at RCPUC. The attire represented confidence, grace, and cultural pride sending a strong message of unity, empowerment and respect to Indian traditions.

AYUDHA POOJA

Ayudha Pooja was held at RCPUC on Sept 30th 2025 and was celebrated with great devotion. The festival symbolizes respect and gratitude towards the tools and resources that support human life and progress. Ayudha Pooja is not only a religious observance but also cultural tradition that honors work, knowledge and the tools that shape the human achievement.

Departments such as Physics, Chemistry, ComputerScience, Biology and Electronics too performed pooja and worshipped their laboratory equipment, instruments and books highlighting the importance of Science, learning and innovation. The collective participation of staff members along with the principal Flt Lt Sunita Dixit strengthened the harmony and reinforced the spirit of cooperation and dedication towards education.

Taluk and District level Kabaddi Match

The Taluk and District level Kabaddi tournament 2025 was successfully held at Ascent PU College on 24th September 2025. Students from RCPUC 1st and 2nd PUC actively participated in this event with great enthusiasm and sportsmanship. A total of 11 boys have participated in the tournament. The tournament provided a wonderful opportunity for the students to showcase their strength, teamwork and skills in Kabaddi. Many teams from different colleges took part making the competition exciting and lively.

The event helped in prompting physical fitness, discipline among the students. Overall, the tournament was well organized and became a memorable experience for all the students.
