

PRAKHAR PRAGYA

THE RCPUC WEEKLY CHRONICLE

www.rcpuc.in

Estb.in 1992

WHAT'S NEW AT RAMAIAH

1. FAREWELL AND WELCOMING EVENT FOR THE FORMER AND NEW PRINCIPAL Page 1 & 2
2. POSH AND POLISHED! NAIL ART COMPETITION Page 3
3. PICK AND SPEAK! Page 3
4. FELICITATION FOR Mrs. SYEDA MUBEENA AISHA Page 4
5. GEF'S ABHIJNA DARPANA QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER Page 4

PRAKHAR PRAGYA THE RCPUC WEEKLY CHRONICLE

Prakhar Pragya is a weekly magazine published by M.S. Ramaiah Composite PU College. It provides with a snapshot of the college's activities and achievements. The magazine covers a wide range of topics, including academic excellence, extracurricular events, inspiring success stories, and career guidance. Prakhar Pragya serves as a platform to celebrate student accomplishments, inspire personal growth, and foster a sense of community within the college. With its concise yet informative content, the magazine keeps students well-informed and motivated, creating a vibrant and dynamic atmosphere at our College.

FAREWELL TO MR NAVEEN

Mr. Naveen Manohar's four-year tenure at the college was recognized and acknowledged by the CEO and CFO in their speech to the audience, wherein they highlighted his significant contributions to the college's progress. As the college's Principal, Mr. Naveen displayed exceptional leadership qualities and made a lasting impact in his roles as an administrator, mentor, and educator. During his farewell speech, he expressed sincere appreciation to the CEO and CFO for the opportunity to lead the college, emphasizing that the experience had been immensely rewarding. On May 2nd, 2023, the college held a farewell and welcome ceremony. Flt Lt Sunita Dixit (Retd) was welcomed as the new college principal, while Mr. Naveen Manohar was bid farewell. The event was attended by the teaching faculty, administrative staff, and students, among others. Everyone expressed their heartfelt farewell to Mr. Naveen Manohar while extending a warm welcome to Flt Lt Sunita Dixit (Retd). The Spectrum team delivered several captivating performances hosted by Mrs. Yamuna.

WELCOME TO Flt Lt S DIXIT

In welcoming the new Principal, Flt Lt Sunita Dixit (Retd), the CEO extended warm wishes and conveyed optimism for her future endeavors. The CEO expressed confidence in her ability to further enhance the college and guide it towards new heights of achievements.

Flt Lt Sunita Dixit (Retd) brings a wealth of experience and a dynamic personality to her new role. She served as a commissioned officer in the Indian Air Force, holding the position of Senior Logistics Officer at various Air Force bases, including Jorhat, Assam (January 1997 to January 1999), 43 Squadron, Jorhat, Assam (January 1999 to January 2000), and Manuari, Allahabad, Uttar Pradesh (February 2000 to December 2001) Her extensive background and demonstrated motivation, it is anticipated that she will significantly contribute to the college's advancement. Her dynamic and adaptable nature, coupled with her wealth of experience, is likely to bring new perspectives and innovative ideas to the institution. The college community eagerly awaits the guidance and leadership she will provide as the new Principal.

She received the Ideal Principal Award at the Army public school. She was honored with a Hindi Bhashan medal in 2010, awarded to a non-Hindi teacher at K V Bagdogra. She has received the Manyata Patr for APS khadakwasla from chief minister of Maharashtra, Sri Eknath Shinde in the year 2023.

POSH AND POLISHED!

NAIL ART COMPETITION

All the participates and cultural team

Prize winners posing with the Principal

The Nail Art Competition was a significant component of the traditional SPECTRUM series organized by RCPUC. It was held on Saturday, May 6th, 2023, at the library of RCPUC, the competition garnered active participation from enthusiastic 2nd PUC students. Esteemed judges, Mrs. Yamuna T.S. and Ms. Rachana B.M were responsible for evaluating the competition entries. The competition showcased the participants' creativity and talent, providing them with an opportunity to exhibit their skills in the realm of nail art. The competition showcased the participants' creativity and talent, providing them with an opportunity to exhibit their skills in the realm of nail art. 2nd PUC PCMB Shivani V.S. and Bhavishya C.D. bagged the first and second position, respectively in the Nail Art event.

Student Reporter - Aditi.V. Pai -2nd PCMB

PICK AND SPEAK!

The Spectrum team organized a speaking competition called "Pick and Speak" for 2nd PU students, which took place on May 6, 2023, from 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. HOD of English dept, Mrs. Latha, along with Mrs. Navya, a lecturer in the English dept, served as the esteemed judges for the event. Participants were given three minutes to choose a topic and express their thoughts and opinions on the selected subject. Bhavishya from the 2nd PCMB secured the first prize, while Sanjana from the same stream earned second place, and Dhriti, also from the 2nd PCMB, attained the third position. The Principal concluded the event by congratulating all the winners and offering words of inspiration to all the participants.

Student reporter- Sandra.K. S, 2nd PCMB

FELICITATION FOR MRS. SYEDA MUBEENA AISHA

A farewell ceremony was organized on the premises of RCPUC to bid farewell to Mrs. Mubeena, an esteemed Hindi lecturer and the Head of the Language Department. The event saw the presence of students, as well as teaching and non-teaching Staff to gathered to express their gratitude and appreciation towards her. Commencing at 11:30 a.m., the farewell ceremony aimed to honour Mrs. Mubeena for her remarkable tenure as a dedicated lecturer. Her enthusiasm and passion for teaching had served as an inspiration to numerous young individuals throughout her career. Having devoted 35 years of service, Mrs. Mubeena retired from her position on April 29th 2023. In a display of love and respect, many members of the institution presented her with gifts as tokens of appreciation. To express their gratitude, RCPUC students took the initiative to organize a cultural program, which served as a heartfelt tribute to the retiring teacher.

During the farewell ceremony, Mr. Naveen Manohar, the former Principal of RCPUC, expressed his admiration for Mrs. Mubeena, describing her as an exceptionally dedicated, intelligent, and accountable teacher. Touched by his words, Mrs. Mubeena became emotional and reflected upon her time at the college, expressing heartfelt gratitude to everyone present for their love and support.

- Amrutha lecturer biology department

GEF'S ABHIJNA DARPANA-QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER.

Mrs. Ramya, a lecturer in the Kannada language at RCPUC, has made significant contribution to the institution. She assumed the role of Kannada editor for the GEF's quarterly newsletter, Abhijna Darpana, showcasing her dedication.

Mrs. Ramya's outstanding contributions and commitment to her role as a lecturer is highly commendable. Her unwavering dedication to promoting the Kannada language and providing valuable learning opportunities for students make her a truly promising member of the faculty.

- Rachana .B.M, lecturer English department